Depleted South American Stocks Push U.S. Soybean Exports to Record

South American Stocks Fall
(Oct 1)

Third Consecutive Record Year for U.S. Exports

Beginning stocks, an estimate of South America's ability to compete with the United States will be at a 5 year low on October 1st. Consequently, U.S. soybean exports are forecast to hit another record as South American competition is decimated by drought. U.S. exports will be particularly strong during October – March when importers, with continued strong import demand from China and rebounding demand from the rest of the world, turn to buying U.S. supplies. Prices are forecast to moderate in 2009/10 as the U.S. crop is harvested and South American production returns to normalcy.

PRICES

U.S. soybean export bids, FOB Gulf, in the first week in May averaged $433 per ton, the highest level since September last year. Strong demand largely by China continues to tighten stocks of old crop and contributed to the sharp rise in export prices.

As of week-ending April 30, 2009, U.S. soybean sales commitments (outstanding sales plus accumulated exports) to China totaled 18.2 million tons, compared to 12.8 million tons a year ago. Total commitments to the world amounted to 32.4 million tons compared to 28.8 million tons the same period last year.

TRADE CHANGES IN 2008/09 & OUTLOOK FOR 2009/10

- U.S. soybean exports are boosted 0.8 million tons to a record 33.7 million due to continued strong sales to China. For 2009/10, exports are forecast at another record 34.3 million tons.
- Argentina's soybean exports are slashed 2.7 million tons to 7.4 million with worsening crop prospects. For 2009/10, exports are forecast at 9.4 million tons.
- Brazil's soybean exports are boosted 1.1 million tons to 26.2 million supported by strong demand from China and reduced competition with Argentina. For 2009/10, exports are forecast at 24 million tons.
- China's soybean imports are raised 1.5 million tons to 37.5 million due to stronger imports in recent months driven largely by the policy to buildup stocks. For 2009/10, imports are forecast at 38.1 million tons.
- India's palm oil imports are boosted 0.4 million tons to 5.2 million driven by large imports in recent months. For 2009/10, imports are forecast at 5.3 million tons.
